Foreword

This changing world often seems to deny the youth of today a strong foothold on the past, for they need to enter the future standing upright.

The past four years in high school have probably represented our first experience in dealing with our changing times, but this experience is definitely only the beginning of the vast complexity that will face us in the future.

The education we have received in high school will certainly prove to be a vital part of our growing up; however, the greatest purpose of our high school experience will have been fulfilled if we have withstood this first major preparatory development and are now of adulthood.

We, the staff of the 1968 Tar-Bo-Rah, have endeavored to present to you the substance of a secure foothold in this changing world. We sincerely desire that this yearbook, representing the past, will prove to be a forever solid and unchanging foundation upon which a secure future may be built.

Our changing world introduces new challenges.

Dedication

The 1968 Tar-Bo-Rah staff recognizes an individual who, by her complete giving of herself, enriches one of the most integral departments of learning at Tarboro High School.

Her field is definitely important; for as this world of ours becomes smaller, contacts of cultures become more frequent and prolonged. The first major step in the understanding of a culture is conquering the barrier of communication. Therefore, with a knowledge of French, we are ready to help solve many of the world's problems through frank discussion.

There could not be a more worthy promoter of such a noble cause than this woman who is so totally involved in her work and with her pupils. She skillfully guides young minds with the assurance that long experience gives. Her thorough knowledge of the French language, supported by the educational experiences of many trips abroad, is responsible for the high respect which is accorded her by contemporaries. The many interesting and varied ways in which she presents this vast store of information endear her to young people. She is more than ready at all times to enlighten any mind that is bogged down or to give encouragement so necessary in many cases.

Therefore, for her ability to create a stimulating atmosphere of learning and to open new vistas for the often unsuspecting student, and for her evident devotion to and interest in young people, we, the annual staff, applaud her worthwhile efforts in dedicating this, our 1968 Tar-Bo-Rah, to Mrs. Jane Highsmith.

Student Life

Mrs. White listens as Willie explains the lesson.

Anticipation for the next class?

Has someone just told a joke or is the food really that good?

A most enthusiastic crowd shows our boys that we're behind them all the way.

And after the game . . .

Summer Means Practice

Eager driver's education students show what safety habits they learned.

Edith: "If I can do it, anyone can!"

School And Work Begin

"Guess what? We're Seniors!!!"

New Janitors?

As The Season Begins . . .

Practice makes perfect.

Tension mounts as the
Tiger opens our first game.

New Outlooks

Lucinda: "Act interested so Parker will take our picture."

Our football team is really glad to have a "new friend" to lift their spirits high.

Sayonara

Quick to pass, but not forgotten.

1967 Marshals

Girls' State

This year, the American Legion Auxiliary chose Margaret Bramham and Mary V. Pollard as their representatives.

Jean Brown was chosen to represent THS as the DAR Good Citizen.

THS's Governor's School candidate was Kenna Peters.

Boys' State

Clint Davenport, Jimmy Cobb, and Everett Logue represented the American Legion at Boy's State this summer.

Steve Perry was chosen as Tarboro High's Typical Youth for the Optimist Club.

West Tarboro Youth Council

Our Queen's Court

Some kinda magic.

Homecoming Parade

A lot of hard work went into these beautiful floats, but it was well worth the effort.

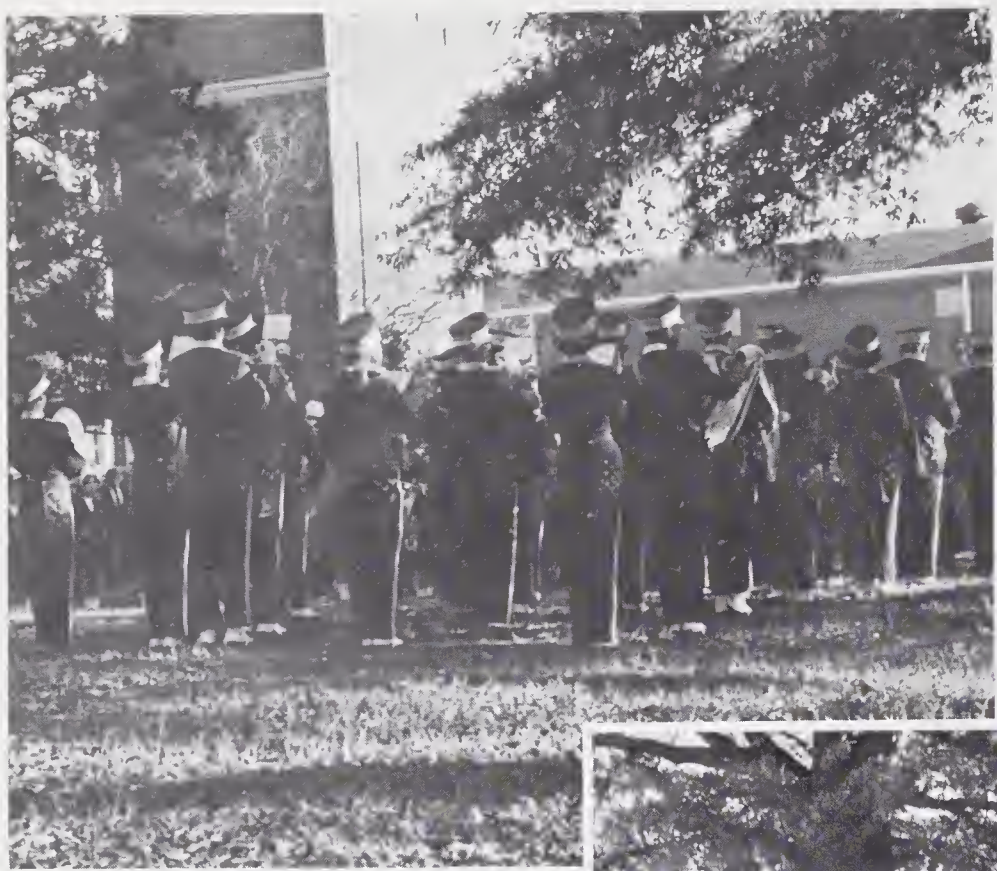
These pretty girls and their handsome escorts are only two of the homecoming candidates.

Maybe We Never Grew Up!

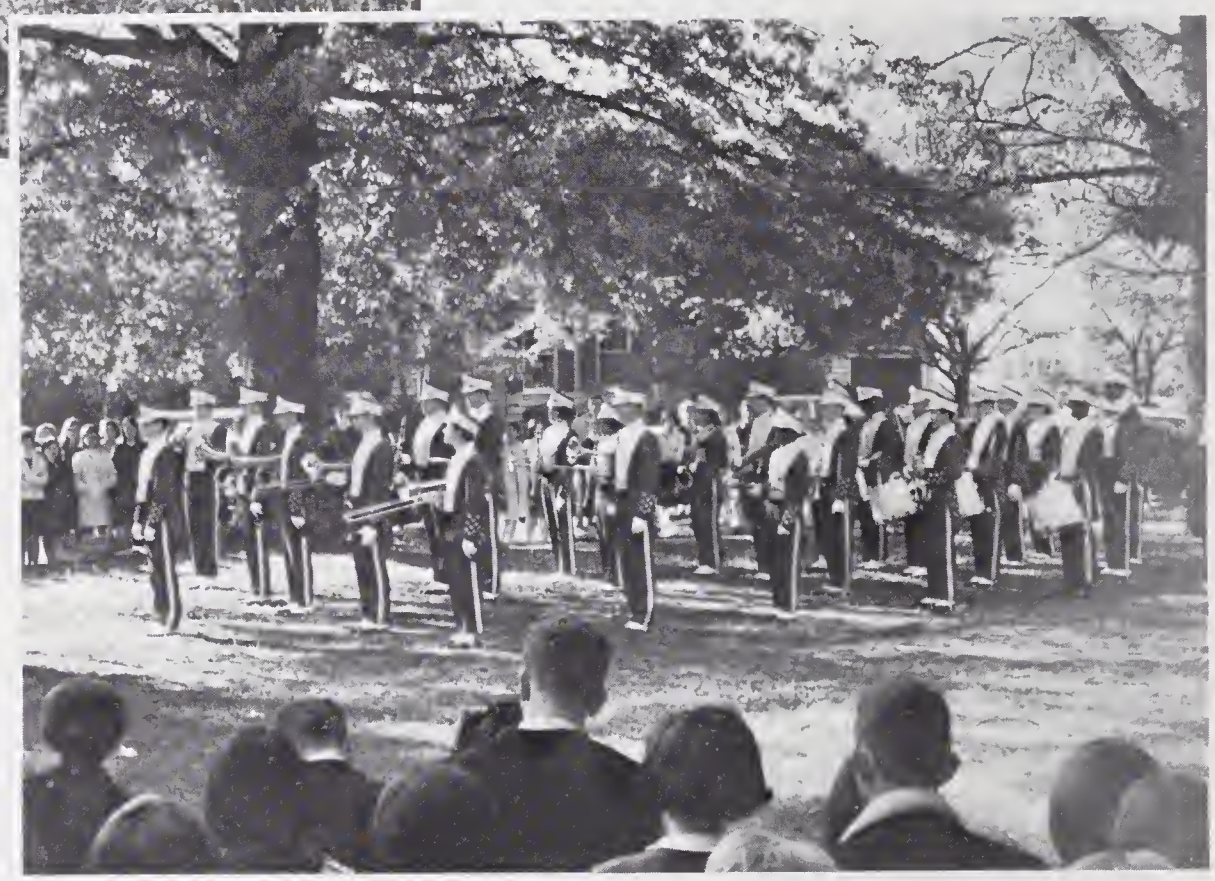
Christmas Comes To T.H.S.

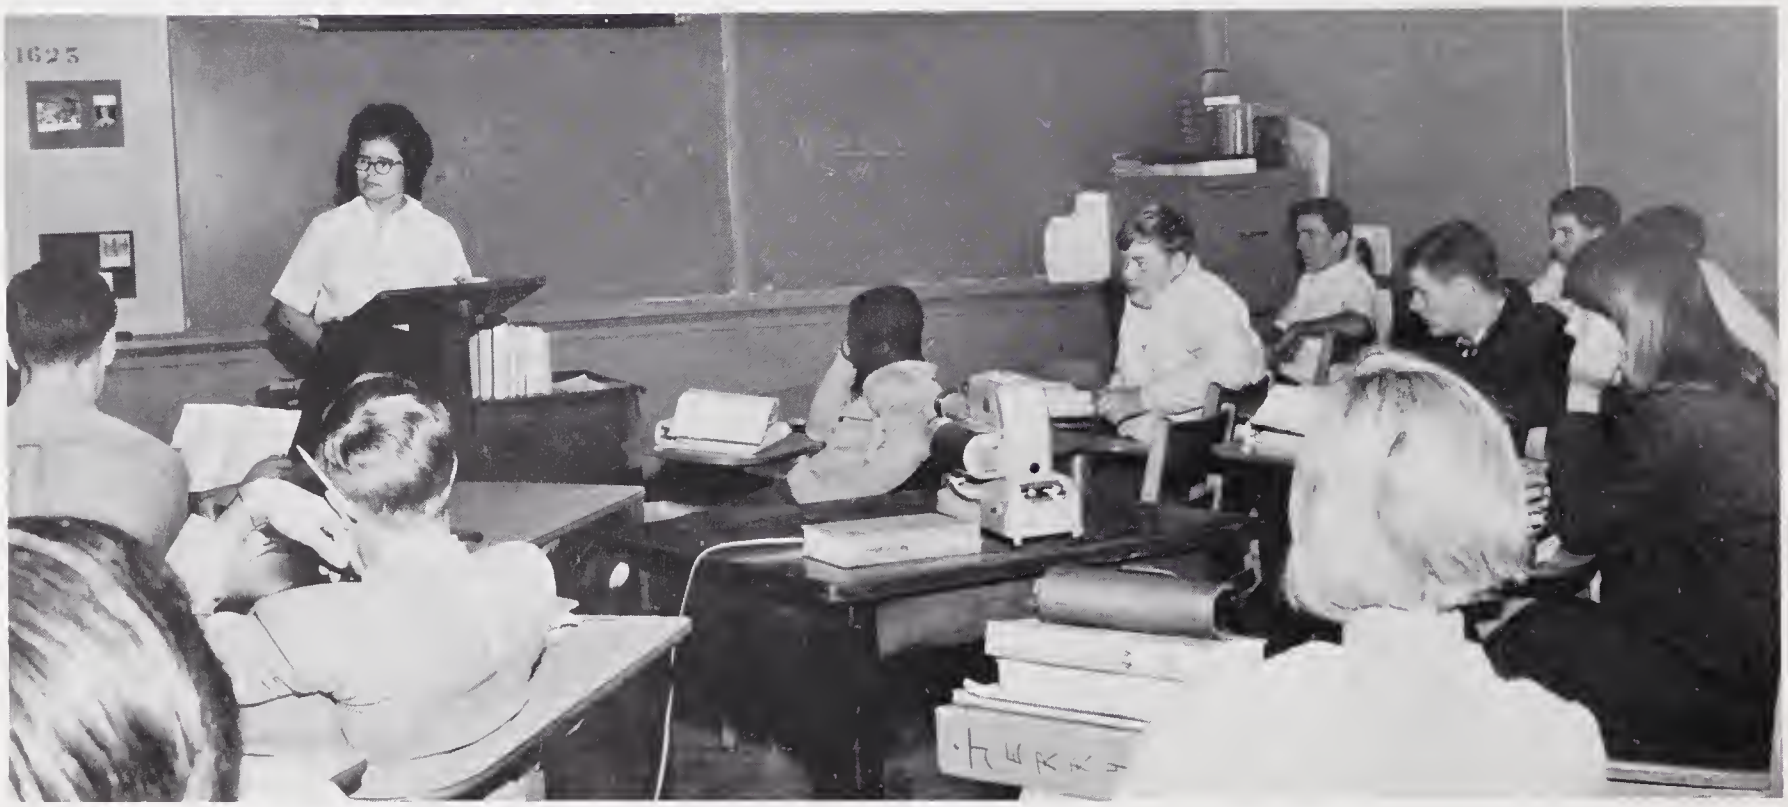
Santa gives generous gifts to our deserving maids and janitors.

The French classes entertained us with beautiful French Christmas carols.



The T. H. S. Band looks good from any angle.





Classes are an inevitable part of life at T. H. S. Even the peppy music that they just heard doesn't help these students stay awake.

Our Leisure Time . . .

"We're off to see the Wizard . . ."

The Seniors make Junior, Jeff Boyd, do all their "dirty work!"

It's what's up front that counts!

T.H.S. Sweethearts

Miss Tay Beasley was chosen as this year's Demolay Sweetheart. She succeeds Charlotte Vick, Demolay Sweetheart of 1967.

Another "sweetheart", Mrs. Patsy White, gives the faculty one of her famous smiles at a surprise shower given in her honor.

The Seniors had a hard job of selecting their mascots. Cindy Proctor, fifth from the left, and Lynn Lewis were the two youngsters who were chosen.

Although their days as mascots are long gone, Bobby and Cathy still try to get in the act.

Our changing world

Brings many innovations,

And it brings endings

To the old things

We hold so dear.

Faculty, Administration, And Curriculum

Dr. Ralph Dunn, Mrs. Julia Hammonds, Mr. Bobby Anderson, Mr. Tom Grainger, chairman, Mr. Dail Holderness, and Mrs. Polly Brown are the members of our capable school board. Through the efforts of these people, our school maintains its high standards.

Mr. Tom Grainger presides as chairman of our local school board.

Our superintendant, Mr. Martin, has contributed much to the growth and development of our school system.

As principal of Tarboro High School, Mr. Forrest is faced daily with problems which he must solve. His skillful handling of these problems allows our school to continue running smoothly and efficiently.

There is seldom a slack moment for our school secretary. Her multifarious jobs require much time and patience which our Miss Nancy Turner always displays.

Grace Whitehurst and Martha Creech, Tarboro High School's guidance counselors, show that they care about the students. Their interest and understanding is a great help.

Mrs. Highsmith gives some future students a firm foundation in French.

Every school day, bus drivers Tim Cobb, James Williamson, Garland West, Mike Dew, Thurman Webb, Freddie Webb, Barry Hudson, Larry Boone, and Joe Keel must face a mob of students who are eager to get to and from school.

Lester Person, Columbus Bryant, Jimmy Knight, Bertha Pettaway, and Francis Pettaway keep our school clean and orderly.

Monday through Friday the students and faculty of THS eat a hot and nourishing lunch prepared by Jacqueline Perry, Martha Pettaway, Ruby Wooten, Mrs. Wilson (dietition), Tillie Williams, and Eva Jones.

Business

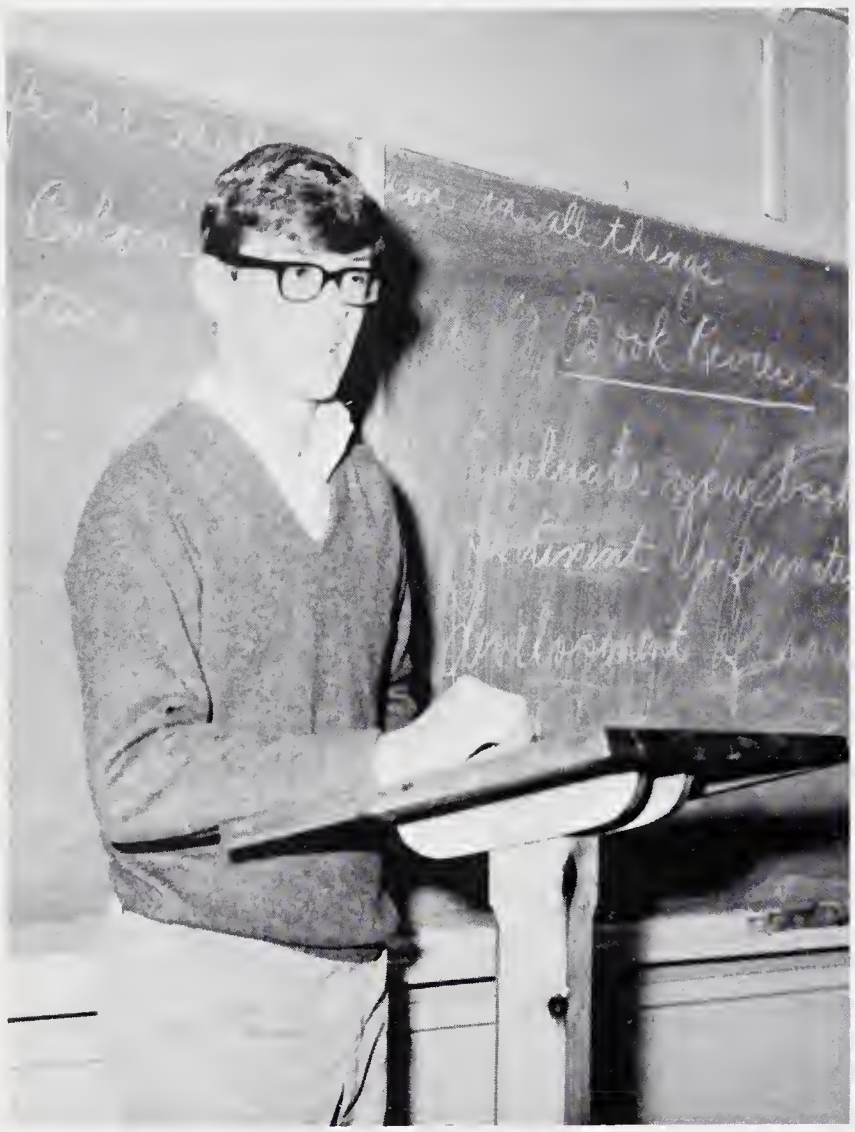
. . . and we're supposed to be able to read that? Just chicken tracks to me. . .

For those students planning a business career, the business courses - typing, shorthand, business arithmetic, and bookkeeping, provide them with a firm basis for their future work.

Concentration is a powerful thing, isn't it, Nathan?

Work hard, girls. We have to get all these letters to Santa by Friday.

English — The Basis



"Uh...well, uh... For my report I read Alice and Jerry. And uh..."

In progressing along the road to better English, students learn grammar, study great authors, and compile research papers. They become better able to express themselves and understand others through the study of English. The mastery of this subject can be carried over to other subjects because a language is the basis of learning.

Margaret: A few more wads of paper and I can start my paper-mache statue of Shakespeare!

Of Learning

Enigmatic - a graphic description of Mrs. Perry!

"... and then I dreamed that report cards were abolished..."

Kenna and Mrs. Ruffin discuss the meaning of Kenna's sentence, "We don't want no homewurk fer tonite."

Industrial Arts

Mr. Everett stands behind his boys as they design a new high school building. After all, what's a school without three swimming pools and a golf course?

The boys in shop show unusual industry as they construct their doll houses.

The Industrial Arts Department of T. H. S. offers classes in shop and technical drafting. These courses provide students with the opportunity to learn these technical skills as a basis for a possible career in industry.

Home Economics

What better opportunity is there for future homemakers to learn the skills involved in running a household smoothly than in Home Economics? The girls taking "Home Ec" are given practical experience in cooking, sewing, interior decorating, and childcare. In the cottage, they learn to cope with the problems they will face as tomorrow's women.

"Touche!" The Senior Home Ec Class' Kitchen Brigade gather for the Kitchen Utensil Olympics.

Susie: "I wonder if there's a buried treasure under the centerpiece?"

The girls are just beginning to notice the 500 lb. Tweety Bird hiding behind their tree.

Math — The

Kim and Becky are drawing Egyptian pyramids and explaining their constructions.

Gail, Paul, and Susan examine the geometric Christmas decorations on Mrs. Forrest's tree.

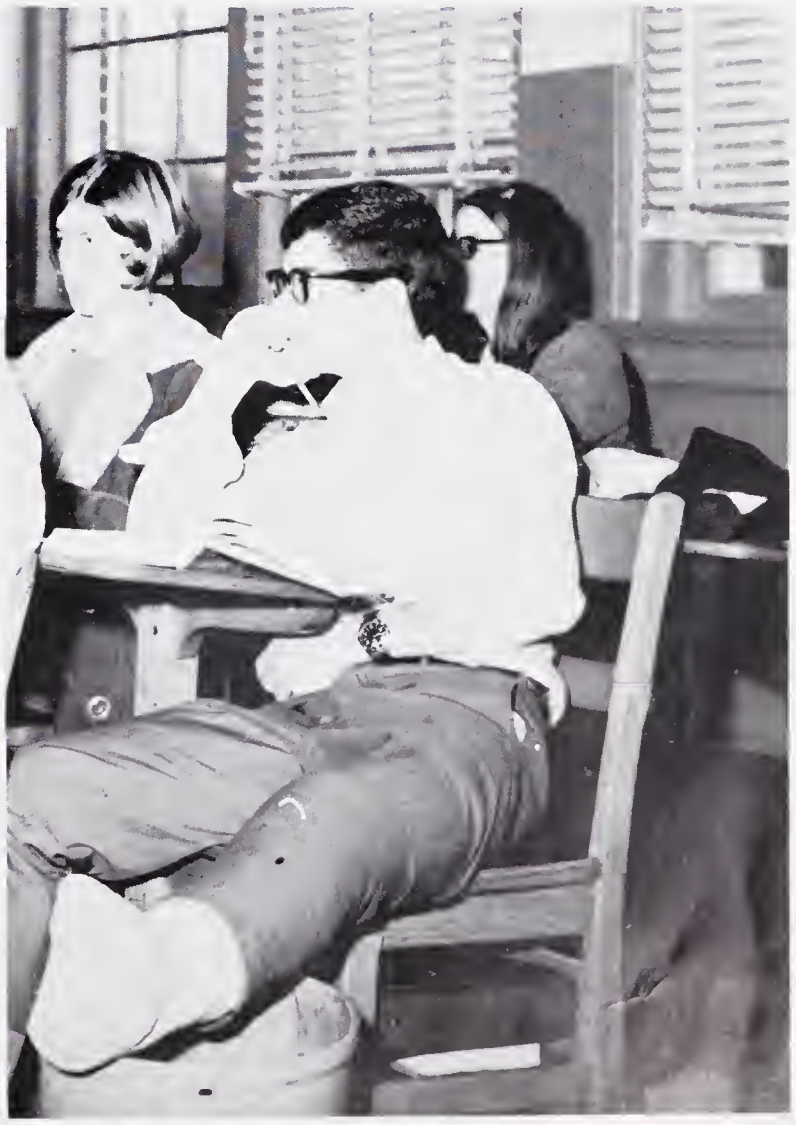
The odds are four to one against Mrs. Brinson that 2 + 2 = 5.

Use Of Numbers

The set of numbers is an infinite set as many students may have discovered by getting a multitude of answers to a problem, and none of them correct. Yet, the world of mathematics is a precise one, and it demands precision work. With a knowledge of the fundamentals of math, one can work up to the most complicated with rewarding results.

Mrs. Price gives Phillip a little aid as George says, "Never mind!"

Students are shown how to assemble a four piece jigsaw puzzle.



Danny's thinking of numbers all right - 36-24-36, perhaps.

Social Studies

"Captain Nice's" students are doing mighty much work!

The key to the future is often found in the past. By studying history, it is hoped that man will learn from his past mistakes and successes; then he can apply this knowledge toward building a better today and tomorrow.

Wonder if Mrs. Dell knows all the things that go on behind her back?

History can't be that spooky!

Teacher: There's one boy in my class who is an absolute ANGEL.

Science

In such a fast-changing world as the one we live in today, it is necessary to keep pace by remaining informed of the latest data. Science is bounding ahead, and it is the responsibility of each individual to learn the important new scientific concepts to keep from being left behind.

"I've got my eyes on you!" says Detective McNair.

These young, earnest freshmen pay close attention to their teacher.

Biology students enjoy watching "wee beasties" at work!

Mr. Gwaltney scratches his head wondering how he got such brilliant physics students.

Foreign Languages

Alex seems to enjoy French Lab. No wonder - his earphones are turned off!

Catherine and Bruce watch as Mrs. Highsmith discovers Randy's picture of a can-can girl.

By using devices such as tape recorders, books, and record players, French students learn both written and spoken French. In first year French, emphasis is placed on understanding and speaking the language. Second-year students deal mainly with grammar, and the third year combines both.

Mrs. Morse: After we stock the trailer with plenty of food, let's go on a camping trip to Rome!

What better opportunity is there to study Roman culture, which still influences us today, than in Latin? The exciting stories of heroes and mythology make translating Latin really enjoyable.

Physical Education

Harold and Mr. Alexander compete for the job of head coach.

How depressing! No smoking in the gym.

At T. H. S. emphasis is also placed upon the development of a sound and physically fit body. Freshmen study the functions of the body and how to maintain good health. Advanced pupils develop skill in varied sports and fundamentals.

Library Science

Order and silence are two watchwords of the Library Science students. The Dewey Decimal System provides the order under which the many books in the T. H. S. library are placed. But it is the librarians who must silence with a stern "Shhhhh!"

Mrs. Barris: How much money can we make today on overdue fines?

Distributive Education

"If the hold-up man says hand over the money", give him this jar of Lavoris and tell him to come back later."

"I can't understand why they insist on going to Hardee's for lunch. Lloyd's is much more nutritious."

Distributive Education courses allow the students the opportunity of enter into the world of business with a greater understanding of the skills and attitudes required of people dealing with the public. A combination of classroom instruction and part-time employment aid them in learning the arts of business.

With a few inside tips from Mr. Spencer, these students might make their first million by the time they're twenty.

Jean Brown

Jonas Clinton Davenport

Clint Davenport has needed all of his abundant energy and leadership qualities this year in doing a fine job as business manager of the Tar-Bo-Rah. Still, he has found time to act as President of the Key Club, and to maintain his consistently high grades.

Dell Taylor Beasley

Tay Beasley plays an outstanding role in many phases of school life. It would be hard to imagine all the time and effort she has spent as chief cheerleader making our squad great. She is a member of the National Honor Society and various other organizations.

Outstanding Seniors

Jean Jarman Brown

Jean Brown is not only an outstanding student, but she is also a hard worker. As the editor of the 1968 Tar-Bo-Rah, she is largely responsible for the huge success of this year's annual. She was chosen by her classmates to receive the D.A.R. Good Citizen's Award. She is also active in many other school organizations.

Margaret Dale Bramham

Anyone who knows Margaret Bramham could testify to her friendliness and co-operative spirit. She was chosen as "most courteous" by her classmates. Margaret displays school spirit in her cheerleading, and she is also a member of the National Honor Society.

Outstanding Seniors

Dena Carol Livesay

Dena Livesay's enthusiasm and interest in her school is indeed outstanding. She maintains an excellent scholastic rating as a member of the National Honor Society. She has worked hard for the Science Club as its President and is also a cheerleader.

Mary Kenna Peters

The fact that Kenna Peters was chosen to represent T.H.S. at Governor's School last year is evidence of her many high scholastic achievements. She is President of the French Club and participates in numerous other school activities.

Outstanding Seniors

Everett Eugene Logue

By qualifying on the strenuous demands of excellence for nominees of the Morehead Scholarship, Everett Logue's achievements at T. H. S. are clearly defined. His fine character and personality are well known by all who have met him.

Mary Virginia Pollard

Mary Virginia Pollard had her work cut out for her when she accepted the position as editor of the school newspaper. Her outstanding efforts have made the paper a huge success. Mary Virginia is a good student and is active in many clubs.

Outstanding Seniors

Catherine Jeanne Warren

Cathy Warren is another excellent student and is outstanding in her art talent. Without her imaginative and beautiful work, last year's Jr. Sr. and many other school undertakings could not have been successful.

Thomas Lewis Long

Tom Long's versatile talents and outstanding character proved him to be the best choice for President of the student body. During the past year he has clearly served his fellow students and his school to the very best of his ability.

The '67 season for the Tarboro High School football team was one of rebuilding. The Tigers had only seven returning lettermen after losing fifteen seniors from the championship team of last year. The team had to rely heavily upon the services of inexperienced sophomores and juniors.

The perpetual problem for the Tigers was a lack of depth. Many of the players had to learn more than one position on both offensive and defensive teams. Injuries were one thing that the Tigers needed to do without to have a successful team, but they seemed to have more than their share. Of the six seniors on the team, only three were able to finish the season.

Assets in favor of the Tigers were being in superb condition and having superior coaches. The Tiger coaches, Doug Alexander and Bobby Cooley, were the best.

Out-weighed at most positions, the Tigers had to rely on teamwork and determination. After a slow start, the Tigers came on strong to finish with a 3-1-1 record, but more important was the valuable experience the team gained.

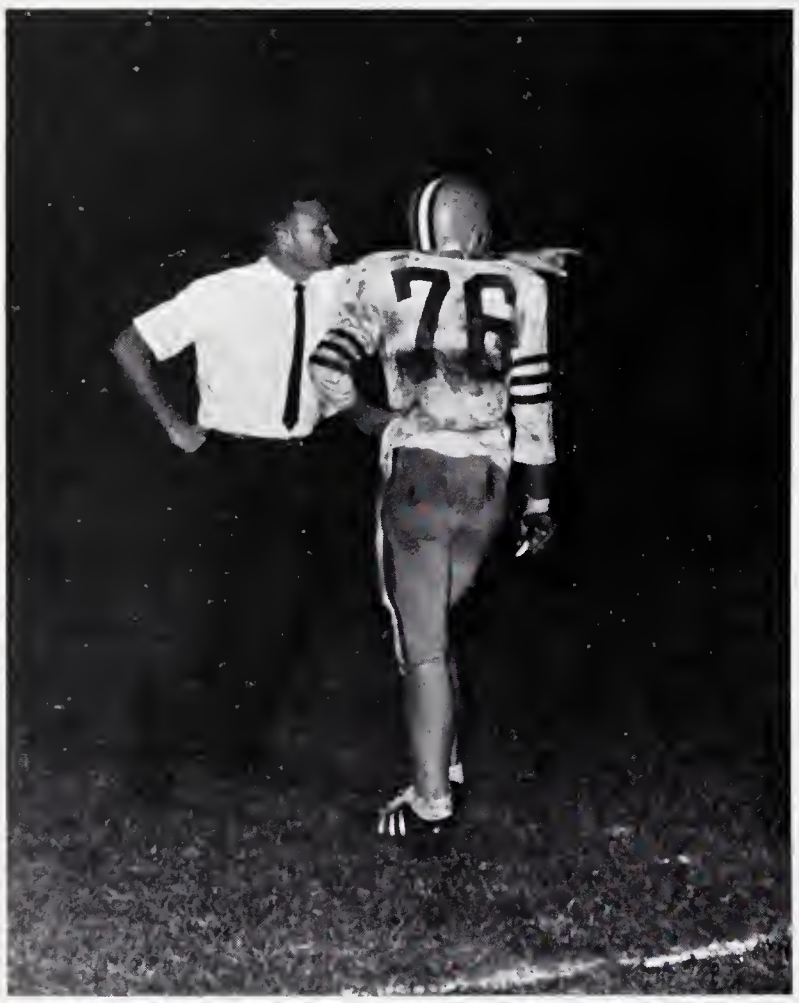
Tarboro 28 Herford 0

The Tigers opened the 1967 campaign with a convincing victory over the Indians of Herford. The Tigers were very impressive, showing their ability to move up and down the field and displaying a brilliant air-tight defense. The hard blocking and the determined running of the backs enabled the Tigers to take a 21-0 lead at intermission.

Although the Tigers scored only once in the second half, they dominated the play. Jarring tackles caused the 2A Indians to fumble three times, while being held to only 78 yards total offense.

If the first game is any indication of that to come, the Tigers were going to be a team to be reckoned with.



Tarboro 9 West Carteret 12

The Tigers lost a hard-fought contest in the fading seconds of the game. Tarboro was able to move up and down the field, but when they got close to the goal, they seemed to lose their momentum. Both Patriot scores came through the air; and except for a few costly mistakes, the Tigers were able to handle the West Carteret team.

Tarboro 0 Greenville 38

Leaving Tarboro could have been the worst mistake the Tigers made as the archrival Phantoms struck paydirt. This was only the beginning as the Greenville quarterbacks picked away at the inexperienced Tigers' secondary. When the Tigers adjusted for their aerial attack, the Phantoms came back with a crushing ground attack that simply ran over the Tigers. What a bitter defeat!

Tarboro 7 New Bern 26

The Tigers played a heck of a first half against the much bigger and experienced Bears. New Bern broke into the scoring column first on a 60 yard drive, but Tarboro refused to give up. They came roaring back to take the lead late in the first quarter. New Bern regained the lead for good in the second quarter and went rolling on to dominate the latter part of the game.

Robinson pulls in another one.

Tarboro 0 Roanoke Rapids 0

The game of the year for the Tigers, as many may call it, showed how much the Tigers had improved. The Tigers were able to keep good field position throughout the game.

Having driven to the Jackers' 3, 9, and 12 yard lines, the Tiger offense bogged down. The high-point of the game was a "fantabulous" defensive stand by the mighty Tiger eleven. With a first down on the Tiger one, the Jackers were unable to penatrate the "fired-up" Ti-ga-tors.

Neither team was able to cross the goal line, although both mustered substantial drives.

Tarboro 21 Havelock 26

A Tiger rally fell short, and the visiting Havelock Rams took home the bacon. The Tigers scored on their first play from scrimmage after recovering a fumble. The Rams marched back to knot the score 7-7 at halftime.

With a balanced attack, the Rams forged ahead 26-14 as the third quarter ended, but the Tigers were not through yet. The defense stiffened, and Tarboro bulled 66 yards in 18 plays to cut the margin. The Tigers were driving again as they ran out of downs and out of time.

Tarboro 7 Washington 27

The Tigers suffered a homecoming loss by the hands of the Washington Pam Pack. The Tigers received the kickoff and drove for the first score in the game. Washington came right back to score two quick touchdowns before the half ended. The second half seemed to be a defensive struggle until the latter part of the fourth quarter when the Pam Pack broke the game open with two more scores.

Tarboro 13 East Carteret 12

The Tarboro Tigers came from behind in the second half to defeat East Carteret for their first conference victory.

Behind 6-0 after a 60 yard pass play, the Tigers drove to the three yard line only to have time run out in the first half.

The Tigers held the Mariners to only 14 yards rushing as Tarboro racked up close to 200 yards and two second-half touchdowns for their first league win.

David Check runs for a good gain.

Donald Palmer gets hit from two sides.

Tarboro 19 Elizabeth City 13

Tarboro struck for a touchdown in the closing minutes of the final period to topple Elizabeth City 19-13. The Tigers took advantage of interceptions and fumble recoveries to give them good field position.

With the score tied 7-7 at half-time, the Tigers used sharp backing and powerful running to break the game. With drives of 65 and 48 yards in the third and fourth quarters, the Tigers dominated second half play.

Determined defensive play by the Tigers kept the potent Yellow Jackets' offense bottled deep in its own territory for most of the night. It was a good way to end the season.

Where is that contact lens?

Tarboro 16 Kinston 13

The Tigers spoiled Kinston's homecoming in an exciting contest that was decided in the last two minutes of play.

Tarboro was first to score on a 30 yard field goal which later proved to be decisive. After the kickoff, the Devils went to the air for two quick scores before the first half ended.

Tarboro completely dominated the second half with a rushing ground attack. The Tigers intercepted four passes and bulled out 223 yards rushing.
